WISCONSIN MUCH HONORED

Six Star Badger Players Placed on All-Western Team.

ONLY TWO NON-CONFERENCE MEN

They Come from Michigan, and Neither Nebraska, Notre Dame, Nor Vanderbilt is Recognized in Picking.

All-Western Football Team.
 Hoefel, End, Wisconsin.
 Butler, Tackle, Wisconsin.
 Keeler, Guard, Wisconsin.
 Diehard, Center, Wisconsin.
 Van Riper, Guard, Wisconsin.
 Trickey, Tackle, Iowa.
 Pontus, End, Michigan.
 Gillie, Quarterback, Wisconsin.
 Van Riper, Guard, Wisconsin.
 Craig, Halfback, Michigan.
 Tanburg, Fullback, Wisconsin.
 Wisconsin dominates the All-Western football team selected by R. C. Patterson for Collier's and published in this week's issue. The Badgers are given six positions, three in the line and as many back of it. The linemen are Hoefel, Butler and Keeler, and the other Badgers honored by Mr. Patterson are Gillie, Van Riper and Tanburg.

Pontus and Craig of Michigan are picked for end and halfback respectively. The Garden of Chicago gets the center berth. Shaughnessy, Minnesota's star tackle, is placed at guard, and Trickey of Iowa is given a tackle position.

Commenting on his selections from the material on the western gridiron this year Mr. Patterson writes in part as follows:

"Captain Hoefel of the University of Wisconsin was probably the best end in the west, although he did not play as hard as he did the year before. His responsibilities as a leader undoubtedly had something to do with that. Hoefel is a fast man, is as good on the defensive as on the offensive, and started at breaking up interference. He goes down on punts with the best and is a sure tackler.

"There are several good tackles. Of the lot Butler and Shaughnessy would be picked by the majority, but Shaughnessy's usefulness extends beyond tackle and he is needed elsewhere. For all round work Butler and Trickey look the best. Butler was one of the most aggressive players in the west. He was not outplayed during the season. Trickey did not get the credit he was entitled to on account of being on a weak team.

"One can hardly make a mistake in picking Keeler of Wisconsin for an end guard position, as this played did consistent work all through the season. He was not outplayed, was fairly active in open field work and helped out his center, which was an important feature as the game was played in Madison.

Suicide Pact in Minnesota.
 MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 3.—James Erickson, aged 33 years, of Annapolis, Minn., is dead and Mrs. Julia Ryan is in a critical condition at a local hospital as the result of what police say was an agreement to commit suicide by poisoning in a local hotel. Mrs. Ryan was revived by

Bradshaw Team Wins Seven Games

BRADSHAW, Neb., Dec. 3.—(Special.)—Bradshaw closed a successful season last Saturday by defeating the Central City High school team 20 to 13. The score for the season follows:
 Bradshaw 13, Giltner 6; Bradshaw 13, Aurora Second 9; Bradshaw 20, Benedict 6; Bradshaw 13, Aurora Second 9; Bradshaw 13, Benedict 6; Bradshaw 20, Central City High school 13. Total points: Bradshaw, 190; opponents, 11.

FUNDS OF FOOT BALL GAME GIVEN TO RELIEF WORK

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 3.—About $24,000, the proceeds of the sale of one-third of the tickets for last Saturday's army-navy football game, will be turned over to the relief societies that look after the widows and orphans of men dying in the two services. The contribution to the two societies by the University of Pennsylvania as a result of the games played now amount to more than $100,000.

GOPHERS BEGIN FOOT BALL PRACTICE FOR NEXT YEAR

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 3.—With the 1913 football season scarcely out of the way Coach H. L. Williams last night began active practice for the games of 1913, more than a score of gridiron aspirants reporting for the first workout in the University of Minnesota armory. Practice will be held once a week, the men being given lectures and formation practice in preparation for outdoor work next fall.

CONGRESSMAN WOODS CONTINUES TO IMPROVE

KATHERVILLE, Ia., Dec. 3.—Reassuring reports were received early today regarding the condition of Congressman Frank H. Woods, who is confined to the Garden hotel with pneumonia. He passed a good night and his temperature dropped to 98.

JACK JOHNSON WEDS LUCILE

Young White Girl Married at Home of Pugilist's Mother.

MOVING PICTURE PLAN FAILS

Bridegroom Prevented from Selling Film Privileges for Five Thousand Dollars by Chief of Police McWeeney.

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—Jack Johnson, negro pugilist, was married this afternoon to Miss Lucile Cameron, the 19-year-old Minneapolis girl, who recently appeared as a witness against him before the federal grand jury which returned indictments charging him with violations of the Mann act.

The ceremony was performed at the home of Johnson's aged mother on the south side by H. A. Roberts, a negro preacher, in the presence of a few persons, including several newspaper reporters.

The girl wore a tailor-made gray suit of shepherd plaid and a large black picture hat with purple plumes. Johnson had a suit of the same material especially made for the occasion.

A curious crowd of nearly 1,000 men and women gathered outside the house and a squad of police was kept busy maintaining order.

The plan of having a moving picture film made of the wedding ceremony, for which Johnson was to have received $5,000, was abandoned at the last moment because Chief of Police McWeeney prohibited it.

A woman newspaper writer was ordered from the house before the ceremony because she offended Johnson by asking too many questions.

Chicken Dinner Served.
 After the wedding an elaborate chicken dinner was served the guests, a large wedding cake and numerous floral pieces being features of the table decorations.

Johnson and his bride have planned to leave tomorrow for a honeymoon trip.

"I had a long talk with Miss Cameron yesterday and we decided to be married tonight," said Johnson. "I explained that I had been blamed for ill treating her and that we might as well be married right away. She is alone in the world now. Her mother has left her and her stepfather is quoted as saying he wants to have nothing more to do with her. We love each other and I see no reason why we should not be married. We will spend our honeymoon near Chicago, but will not leave the state."

Sir Thomas Lipton is Visiting Denver

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 3.—Sir Thomas Lipton reached Denver late tonight from Salt Lake City. Among the dozens of telegrams he found awaiting him was one from Queen Alexandra of England thanking him for his congratulations upon the occasion of her sixty-third birthday.

"Now I wonder how her majesty knew I was in Denver?" said Sir Thomas.

An elaborate series of entertainments for Sir Thomas has been arranged for tomorrow and Wednesday by various local organizations.

Sir Thomas Lipton declared this morning that he is not aware of any plans which Charles C. Allen may have made concerning a challenge for the America yachting cup.

"If he has made any plans," said Sir Thomas, "they have been formulated since my departure from England. This report of his challenge may be true. Mr. Allen is a good clean sportsman, but whatever he may do will not affect my plans for a challenge in 1915."

BLACK HILLS FARMERS COMPLAIN AGAINST MILLERS

DEADWOOD, S. D., Dec. 3.—(Special.)—The farmers and grocers of the district lying in the eastern foothill country of the Black Hills, at a meeting recently held at Sturgis, discussed plans for taking action against the flour millers of Rapid City, Sturgis, Whitehead and Belle Fourche, under the Sherman anti-trust law, claiming that there exists a combination in restraint of trade. They point out that they have been receiving only 50 cents for their wheat, while the market price at Minneapolis has been 80 cents. They are prevented from shipping to the better market, on account of the prohibitive rates fixed by the railroads between Black Hills points and Minneapolis.

The rate on wheat is 24 cents. As the wheat yield this year has been low in the affected district—about eight bushels to the acre—the aggregate amount received for the crop has not been great and they are confronted by the possibility of further distress, by the announcement that the local millers now have on hand all the wheat they will require and are about to cut the price to 20 cents.

MILITARY SPIRIT IS NEEDED

General Bliss Addresses National Guard Association.

STORCH IS GIVEN AN OFFICE

Nebraska General is Elected Treasurer of Organization—Bliss Predicts General War in Europe Soon.

NORFOLK, Va., Dec. 3.—Brigadier General Tasker H. Bliss, of the United States army, addressing the National Guard association of the United States here today, declared that certain college presidents, professors and others, moulding the manhood of the rising generation, had taken a stand against the inculcation of the military spirit in the youth of the nation that had a tendency to rob the country of the power and force which it would some time in the future need for self-preservation.

The general said the military spirit looking to possible universal peace was wrong. He urged with great force "the keeping alive of the military spirit, upon which the honor and existence of our country must surely depend."

General Bliss declared that while western nations were looking to universal peace, millions in the eastern nations were keeping alive the spirit of war and that sooner or later there was bound to come a great conflict between the peoples of the two hemispheres that would demand trained armies and that the United States must maintain national honor and preserve its dominion.

New Officers.
 Officers were elected by the association as follows:

President, General Thomas J. Stewart of Pennsylvania; secretary, General Elliott C. Dill of Maine; treasurer, General Joseph A. Storch of Nebraska; vice presidents, Generals F. B. Wood of Minnesota, Colonel W. G. Bates of New York, General J. C. Foster of Florida, General Charles I. Martin of Kansas, General James Macklin of Maryland, General W. E. Finzer of Oregon, General F. M. Rumhold of Missouri, General C. C. Vaughan, Jr., of Virginia, General F. S. Dixon of Illinois, Colonel Harry B. Smith of Indiana, General P. L. Abbey of Michigan and Colonel Austin Colgate of New Jersey.

MRS. ALICE C. MITCHELL, CLUB WOMAN, IS DEAD

OTTUMWA, Ia., Dec. 3.—Mrs. Alice C. Mitchell, aged 59 years, wife of Judge J. C. Mitchell, died here Sunday night after a lingering illness. Mrs. Mitchell was one of the first members of the P. E. O. Sisterhood and organized the Ottumwa chapter Daughters of the American Revolution. She was prominent in state club work, having represented state societies at national conventions.

The Yoke is prominent among seasonable features in clothes.

Our L System Norfolk suits for young men show it—"cagey" styles that can only be imitated, not equalled. $17, $20, $25.

Our Kensington overcoats have satin yokes or 1-4 linings in color to match their fancy, plaid self-backs—tasteful but stunning effects and great values at $20 and $25.

The perfect collar and shoulders and the graceful drape of these garments will convince you at once of their complete superiority over the nondescript clothing which you can buy elsewhere at alleged "reduction" sales.

Our Kensingtons reflect genuine art in clothes building—the most we ask is a chance to show them to you.

Democrats May Fight Recess Appointments

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—President Taft sent more than 200 recess appointments to the senate today and immediately indications of a movement among some of the democratic senators to prevent their confirmation became evident. Senator Gore, it was said, would have the active support of several colleagues in heading the movement.

The campaign is directed especially against nominations, which, it is claimed, have been postponed from time to time, thus bringing the new terms close to the beginning of the democratic administration. Democratic senators claim the president already has deprived the democrats of the privilege of appointing 20,000 postmasters by placing them within the civil service law by a single order.

Most of the democratic senators expressed themselves as favorable to a "discriminating obstruction," but several progressive senators, whose assistance had been counted on did not appear willing to co-operate. It is understood.

Among reappointments made by President Taft during the recess of congress and sent today to the senate for confirmation was that of Edgar E. Clark of Iowa as a member of the Interstate Commerce commission.
